EXHIBITORS

Exhibitors have access to the trade show floor two (2) days prior to the beginning of the expo for move-in and set up, and one (1) day after the expo for move-out.

REMEMBER: The Los Angeles Convention Center is a UNION LABOR CONVENTION CENTER. This means, the Labor Unions dictate specific rules. If you send product samples to Freeman or the Convention Center before the trade show, the Labor Union will charge you to bring it to your booth and Freeman will charge you for handling the package. It is much more cost- effective for you to bring in your samples yourself (can be done if you are able to bring them by carrying them or by small hand cart - anything bigger has to be brought in by the Union Labor)
